MEDIA RELEASE

For Saturday, 6 February 2010

Penny TannerHoath and Guest Host Sportfm 91.3's Ian Hooper join forces on Radio Fremantle's World Football Programme this Saturday from 9am with everything football.

We continue our support for the Toodyay Bushfire Appeals, which the Perth Glory are supporting with a signed WA pool table, alongside the Australian Cricket Team. Keep your eyes open as the tables are being auctioned off by 6PR over the coming weeks.

Cockburn City Coach Scotty Miller already has bragging rights over Perth FC with a handy first round victory. Scott chats about his side and fills us in on other Night Series results so far.

In Grassroots FC we profile Kingsley Football Club with Committee Man of 25 years, Ian Hooper. We also catch up with Mark Lee about his Pro Football Training and local Coaching Programmes.

The WAIS Women's Football Program is underway for 2010 with Perth Glory coach John Gibson at the helm. His assistant at the Glory and WAIS is former Socceroo Shaun Murphy and he explains why he's now in the women's camp.

Many West Australian footballers are packing their bags and heading across to Melbourne in search of A-League contracts. We hope to catch up with either A League table toppers Melbourne Victory or South Melbourne Football Club to talk to us about out why the Victorian Leagues attract some of Australia's best young players. Porter, Kruse, Vargas, Milicevic, Pondeljak and Tiatto are some of the names you may recognise from the South Melbourne and Victory lineups.

The Matilda's are in camp and Sarah Walsh brings us up to speed with the tour schedule and Aussie player movements. The US Professional League is recruiting for their new season starting in April and tickets are already up for sale! Will Sarah be tempted back there after an injury plagued 2009?

Francis Awaritefe caps off Egypt's 3rd consecutive win in the African Cup with player and team awards and tournament stats and Jim Dunlop talks us through the UK leagues. You may know Jim's brother Alan Dunlop from the WA State Team.

All that and more on Saturday 107.9fm 9am to 12noon with Penny Tanner Hoath and Ian Hooper.

We always look forward to your calls throughout the show on 9494 2100 or text Penny on 0408 921 832.
