

MEDIA RELEASE

For Saturday, 20 February 2010

Join Penny TannerHoath and International Football Show's John O'Connell this Saturday on The World Football Programme 107.9fm from 9-12noon.

NTC and South west Academy trials are underway. Tune in Saturday for details.

Chris Correia brings us the Bam Creative Night Series news and quarterfinal wrap. Newcomers Balcatta finished on top of Group C, Scotty Miller's Cockburn also finished on in Group A and Floreat, after winning all 3 games, lead Group B. Trevor Morgan is back coaching at Sorrento, and finished third in their group in the Night Series. We chat about the differences in preseason preparations between Australia and England?

Perth Hills FC are a small but very progressive hills club. Catch Coach Steve Ireland's views on why the club is so successful at producing girls in our junior state teams.

Glory's Media Man Steve Nelkovski is in New Zealand with Perth Glory as are our 3 WA girls with the Matildas. WA is certainly on show with Lisa DeVanna, Collette McCallum and Katie Gill all in the Matildas squad. Glory are making their A League finals debut against Wellington Phoenix this Sunday. While Collette debuts as Matilda's Vice Captain.

New Zealand is becoming a showcase for football and Golden Boot winner Shane Smeltz is testament to that. The Socceroos play Indonesia March 3 in their Asian Cup qualifier and Glory's only representative is late arrival Daniel McBreen, who has without a doubt helped the Glory jumped the last few hurdles into the finals. Fox Sport's Paul Trimboli gives his opinions on the squad and our chances in Brisbane.

We talk to Melbourne Victory CEO Geoff Miles on the clubs playing success, A League Coach and player Awards and upcoming AFC Champions League games. We then profile South Melbourne with Marketing and Events Manager George Triantos on their pathway for players into the Victorian Premier League. Names such as Paul Wade, Paul Trimboli, Con Boutsianis and Ange Postecoglou are associated with the club.

British Football Week Editor Tim Lefort talks finance troubles and club movements in the EPL and a mystery guest fills us in on the European Leagues.

If there's more time we will fill it up with more news on the World Game!

We always look forward to your calls throughout the show on 9494 2100 or text Penny on 0408 921 832.
