MEDIA RELEASE

For Saturday, 20 March 2010

Join Penny TannerHoath and the International Football Show's John O'Connell on the World Football Programme this Saturday on 107.9FM from 9-12noon.

All the local leagues are gearing up to start. The Women's Night Series kicks off 6.30pm this Friday at Coker Park. The game to watch must be rapidly expanding Beckenham against new South West entrants Bunbury Forum Force at 8.30pm. Bunbury are also rapidly expanding and next weekend will see their season opener. The men's State League kicks off Saturday and the Division One Night Series Semi Finals are Saturday night.

Fox Football Superstar Series 3 beckons for the early birds aged 16-21 at Litis Stadium this Sunday from 7.30am for 9am try outs. Find out who the previous winners were and how our Perth boys have fared. An audience is welcome at the stadium!

Our local profiles include club, player and coaches. East Fremantle Tricolore's President Rob DeKleine, FFA coaching scholarship holder Nicola Williams, NTC player Harry O'Brien and Subiaco Women's Coach Dan Evans to tell us how we are shaping up for the new season locally.

Amongst all this activity, the Perth Glory Youth play Gold Coast United in the Grand Final at 12 noon Saturday at Etihad Stadium Melbourne and Melbourne Victory take on Sydney FC at 4pm.

We explore how the community is responding to the National League finals with Youth League Dad Don Evans as Dean Evans lines up for the Glory Youth, The Australian newspaper's Ray Gatt and the focus on football in the media and the supporters clubs of both Melbourne Victory and Sydney FC with their thoughts on the how the club's have promoted themselves to the fans in the lead up to big game.

Local Italian legend, 95.3fm's Bruno Napolitano talks Serie A news and Sorrento's Trevor Morgan tries to out talk John about the EPL.
