Join Ann Odong and Guest Co-host Beckenham Angels Coach Leo Coppens as they bring you 3 hours of everything football on The World Football Programme this Saturday between 9 and 12pm.

With his side sitting pretty on top of the APB State League, we catch up with Perth SC coach Graham Normanton about the season so far, the State League and this Monday's Cup fixtures. Also riding high on top of Division One are Bunbury Forum Force with an impressive 8 - 1 record and impressive 40 goals. We hope to catch with the south-west club ahead of their match with the Dianella White Eagles.

Perth Glory's Media Manager Steve Nelkovski joins us at 10am for the Glory weekly segment as we catch up on the latest news from the inner sanctum. We also have a look at some of the great friendlies that have been announced by clubs throughout the A-League.

With the World Cup drawing nearer, the City of Perth have announced the Northbridge Piazza Soccer Live Site for the screening of pool matches. Lord Mayor Lisa Scaffidi will be on board to give us all the latest information.

Unless you have been under a rock by now you would know that the Matildas are the Champions of Asia with a penalty shootout win over DPR Korea last Sunday evening. Our Perth Glory Women's players had a large part to play in the tournament and Vice Captain Collette McCallum and Sam Kerr join us in the studio to chat about the historic win. We also chat with the newly made-over Tom Sermanni about the challenges and triumphs of the Asian Cup Campaign.

Former Adelaide United coach Aurelio Vidmar has been named the Olympic Coach and Assistant Socceroos coach. We hope to catch up with Aurelio on his new appointments.

It was heartbreak for WA's Shane Lowry and Rhys Williams as they missed out on a place in the Socceroos 23 man World Cup squad. Soccer International writer and The Roar editor Adrian Musolino will be on board for the first time to analyse the squad and its chances. As always SBS football analyst and football tragic Francis Awaritefe looks at cuts in some of the other squads include Australia's group opponents.
