MEDIA RELEASE

For Saturday, June 12, 2010

The World Football Programme on 107.9fm radio this Saturday morning boasts a huge lineup leading into promoting the impending World Cup.

We start off our local roundup with National girl's 13's Coach Nicola Williams on the local women's competition and review of the United States WPS where our Matilda's are flying back to after a successful World Cup qualification in Asia.

Bob Figg joins us from Heritage FM to review the men's State League and Football West's Bob Kucera updates us how the team are settling in under new CEO management.

Rob Fowler slips in for a 5 minute edited and pre-recorded interview care of Perth Glory. Local Fremantle and Glory boy Andrija Jukic steps into the studio from 10am to give us inside info on how the squad is shaping up with superstar Rob Fowler in the ranks.

Former Fox8's Football Superstar contestant Gilly Buckley brings us news about the WA boys in the final 15 of Series 3 and then covers the A League player movements and news.

Bonita Mersiades joins us from the Everton Down Under July Tour, where the EPL giants are tackling Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane Roar. Phil Neville, Tim Cahill and Louis Saha are all names we will see if we make the journey across to the Eastern States and post World Cup injuries permit.

Such is our World Cup commitment that Team Member Tony Carvajal has left for Spain to indulge in the European Champion's homeland passion. We are left here to indulge World Cup Fever which starts Friday with opener South Africa and Mexico.

Australia play Germany on Monday and Northbridge Piazza are showing live games and the finals at Perth's only public and permanent outdoor screen at the corner of James and Lake St Northbridge. Go to <http://www.perth.wa.gov.au/web/Media-Centre/?article=400> for more info.

Paul Wade, Francis Awaritefe and SBS Match Commentator David Smith join us between 11 and 12 to talk up results of the international friendlies in the lead up to the Cup, Socceroo's player and squad news, the opening match results and upcoming fixtures.

Join Penny TannerHoath and Ian Hooper Saturday morning 9-12pm on 107.9fm Radio Fremantle. Text Penny on 0408 921 832 anytime or ring the studio on 9494 2100 Saturday morning with your comments.
