MEDIA RELEASE

For Saturday, 10 July 2010

107.9fm's The World Football Programme's Penny TannerHoath and Perth United girls Coach, Steve Ireland bring you a full table of The World Game on Saturday.

From Coffs Harbour we catch up with Under 17s State Team Coach Nicola Williams at the Westfield National Youth Championships for Girls, where she and Under 15s Tanya Oxtoby are winding up the week of competition against other state 15s and 17s squads. Nicola flew to NSW from the Vietnam Festival of Football during the week and brings us the news on the Australian Under 13s outstanding performances there.

Football West Development Coach Cris Ola shares Football West's holiday programmes and prompts us about the upcoming WA v Glory game July 28 to support the "Call To Arms" Cancer Council charity. We wrap the men's and women's local Premier Leagues and remind clubs about the club meeting for restructuring Women's Football this Monday.

WAIS Assistant Coach and former Socceroo Shaun Murphy updates us on how the girls WAIS squad is progressing in the 14s boys Premier League and how he is settling in to the female side of football. WAIS scholarship holders Jaymee Gibbons, Sadie Lawrence and Amy Knights have all performed well in front of WAIS Head Coach John Gibson at the National Championships this week.

On the National scene, we chat to Glory Chairman Tony Sage on the boys China Tour and all things Glory. Adelaide's local media guru Natalie Adamopoulos joins us with the inside info on their Dutch coaching appointment Rini Coolen, preseason matches including Perth Glory and any and all other news from inside the Adelaide United camp. Sydney FC fanatic Jess Martin revels in Dwight Yorke's return for their preseason schedule and FFA's Lyall Gorman joins us for an overall A League preview.

Matilda Lisa DeVanna gives us 5 minutes to update us on her rehabilitation and then we turn to the World Cup in South Africa where Spain knocked out powerhouse Germany to play Netherlands in the Final later this weekend. The World Game's Football Analyst Francis Awaritefe, former Socceroo Stan Lazaridis and match commentator David Smith join us by phone to share their views on the concluding World Cup spectacle.

Join Penny TannerHoath and Steve Ireland this Saturday morning 9-12pm on 107.9fm Radio Fremantle. Text Penny on 0408 921 832 anytime or ring the studio on 9494 2100 Saturday morning with your comments.
