MEDIA RELEASE

For Saturday, August 7, 2010

107.9fm's The World Football Programme's Penny TannerHoath and Beckenham's main man on the ground, Leo Coppens present a full table of The World Game this Saturday.

From Victoria we catch up with State schoolgirls Coach Nicola Williams at the National Championships. We wrap the local WA Premier League and ask Nicola what she thinks about restructuring the women's league in 2011.

Balcatta's varying and potentially damaging results have led to a landslide to the bottom half of the APB State League table. Coach Salv Todaro speaks up for a team that have conceded 40 goals in 18 games. Will the R word get a mention?

Football West Board Member Rob MacKay brings us up to speed on where our state organisation is sitting with its new CEO and 2010 goals. Peter Hugg's face is certainly being seen at more places in Western Australia than we all would have visited in the last 10 years.

Ian Ferguson reviews the Glory v Fury game after tonight's performance at the NIB Stadium. Let's hope the crowd reflects the busy and successful preseason the club has been promoting. Not forgetting the impact of the face we all seem to be seeing just a bit more than the Football West CEO, Rob Fowler.

Fox Sports Presenter Paul Trimboli gives us his honest opinion on Melbourne Heart's loss to Central Coast and the remainder of the A League fixtures this round. Sydney's Jess Martin fills us in on Champions Sydney FC, the Football Festival and the game of the round Sydney v Melbourne Victory.

FFA's Head of Women's Football Leeanne Grantham talks us through the status of the W League, demise of central Coast Mariners and a new female Coach entering the League. Victory secured the league's second female Coach in Vicki Linton this week.

The leading Fox Sports A League Presenter Simon Hill, discusses the impending EPL and his beloved Manchester City. Fixtures start the weekend after next. As usual player and coach movements are the most talked about part of the pre-season. Mouth watering openers include Manchester City v Tottenham and Liverpool v Arsenal.

There's all that and more with European Leagues and the MLS looking sharper with Henry a new fixture in their calendar.

Join Penny TannerHoath and Leo Coppens this Saturday morning 9-12pm on 107.9fm Radio Fremantle. Text Penny on 0408 921 832 anytime or ring the studio on 9494 2100 Saturday morning with your comments.
