MEDIA RELEASE

For Saturday, 14 August 2010

Join Ann Odong and UWA-Nedlands Women's Head Coach Conrad McKelvie this Saturday on The World Football Programme 107.9fm from 9-12noon.

The Western Australian Amateur squad is set to take on State Premier League side Armadale this Tuesday, August 17 at Alfred Skeet Reserve. WA Amateur's coach Rob Pagnoni and his assistant Mick Piaccia have had the difficult task of selecting a 15 man squad but with the job completed we catch up with Rob ahead of this Tuesday's fixture.

The State League Cup is just over a week away and this means its time for the annual Cup Final Breakfast. Organised by football media personality and Not the Footy Show's Ashley Morrison in collaboration with Football West, the Cup Breakfast has been reinstated as a "must attend" event. Ashley joins us on the show to give us the details of the 2010 edition.

It's early days but it sure sounded like the Glory days are back with over 16,000 people filling NIB Stadium to see the Glory take on North Queensland. Although the result didn't go their way, signs looked good for Perth and Glory CEO Paul Kelly will be on board to talk about their first home game and the road trip to Melbourne. We will also catch up with the opposition as Victory's Football Operations Manager Gary Cole takes time out to preview the Round 2 clash at AAMI Park.

Hosted by Matilda Ellyse Perry, award winning OneHD program Football Stars of Tomorrow uniquely showcases the link between local football and the elite level. WFP meets up with Executive Producer Tony Peters to find out more about the highly rated local football show.

On Wednesday afternoon, FFA Chairman Frank Lowy announced that German Holger Osieck would be the new coach for the Socceroos for the next four years. As with Pim Verbeek, his appointment has been met with hesitancy in several quarters. We look to speak with The Australian's Ray Gatt about the man to lead the next generation of Socceroos.

The Premier League returns for another season and already there have been shocks and surprises from player transfers to manager changes. And with Aston Villa Manager Martin O'Neill leaving the Midlands club, there is plenty to chat about with Sky News' Edna Brady as it all gets underway with last season Top 4 protagonists Tottenham and Manchester City doing battle.

One of the highlights of the World Cup this year was SBS's Santo, Sam and Ed's Cup Fever with their left field look at the happenings of the World Cup. We chat to co-host Ed Kavalee about the show and the public's response to the show and the football.

If there's more time we will fill it up with more news on the World Game!

We always look forward to your calls throughout the show on 9494 2100 or text Ann on 0433 816 000.
