MEDIA RELEASE

For Saturday, 25 September 2010

Join host Ann Odong and guest co-hosts UWA-Nedland's Conrad McKelvie and Sportfm's Ian Hooper this Saturday morning from 9 - 12pm on Radio Fremantle's the World Football Programme.

The local football season is coming to an end and with all the Leagues starting to wrap up there are plenty of congratulations to go around. Balcatta SC is one such team with the women's premier side wrapping up the 2010 Smarter than Smoking Women's Premier League title with a midweek win. We chat to back-to-back winning coach Lisa Tana about her side's achievements over the last two seasons. We also catch up with retiring longstanding Beckenham Angels coach Leo Coppens about his plans as he moves into the next phase.

For the second successive season the Western Knights will be playing off for the State League title after a 2 - 0 win over Perth SC in last weekend's Major Semi-final. Who will they meet? In a replay of the Qualifying Final the Stirling Lions and Perth SC do battle but this time its on the latter's home turf! Match commentator and football tragic Bob Figg looks at the finals series and the preliminary final.

In our Perth Glory segment we have a look at the Glory Youth with coach Gareth Naven. After a building over the last two seasons, including last year's grand final appearance, the Gareth's boys will be looking to go one step further. We chat with him about the exciting youngsters, their goals and their big first round win.

Well, it's been a very busy period for the FFA and the A-League bosses in season 2010/11. Several clubs have required FFA assistance in some shape or form with the latest news the brokering of a deal to ensure the Newcastle Jets remain alive for this season. Head of the Hyundai A-League Lyall Gorman will speak with us at 10.40 (12.40 AET) as we look at the state of the League.

Several West Australians have the chance to show their wares internationally with a busy period coming up for both the Olyroos and Qantas Young Socceroos. We hope to speak with Sydney Morning Herald's Chief Football Writer Sebastian Hasset about the squads and results of the next generation of Socceroos.

Finally, the Premier League and European Leagues are in full swing with plenty of big games being played. Liverpool fan and The Australian's Chief Football Writer Ray Gatt looks at another week of Premier League football and the studio chats Spain, Italy, France and whatever else we can fit it!
