MEDIA RELEASE

For Saturday, 2 October 2010

Penny TannerHoath and Stirling Lions President Don Evans bring you a shortened 2 hour show of the World Football Programme.

It's a Festival of Football this weekend at 6PR Stadium, Inglewood with the best the State has to offer in men's women's football on display. The Smarter Than Smoking Women's Cup Final sees defending champions the Northern Redbacks against Premier League debutants Bunbury Forum Force. The main game is a replay of last year's final with the Western Knights taking on Perth SC in the All Flags State League Final.

Finally, the Perth Glory Youth take on Brisbane Roar looking to continue their perfect start to the NYL season. The Festival continues at Inglewood on Sunday with Inglewood hosting the Metropolitan League Cup Final from 10.30, the Masters League Cup Final, the Reserves Cup Final and the Sunday League Cup Final all to be played to conclude the 2010 Football West season.

With the girls High Performance squad taking out the 14s Premier League for the first time, we speak with Andrew Bettell about their direction for 2011, the recent WAIS workshop outcomes and how successful or challenging the Football West High Performance programmes are proving to be.

Country Week is concluding their 8 league junior competition down at Beale Park and Andrew brings us the news and figures from the regions. Albany, Port Hedland, Karratha, Goldfields and Peel are some of the distances teams have travelled for this year's Country Week.

Off the back of 3 straight losses, Perth line up against second placed Brisbane Roar this Sunday at the NIB Stadium at 5pm. Tony Sage gives us his thoughts on the teams stumble of late, the Youth League's positive start and promotes Robbie Fowler's public appearance on Monday at Jim Kidd's Sport Harbour Town.

The A League competition has proved to be a totally open one with Sydney currently propping the league and the Victory slowly making their way back up the table to more familiar territory. Brisbane and Adelaide are the surprise packets. Playing great football, with flair and pace and earning their players National selection.

The Socceroos play Paraguay October 9 with 6 A League based players named in the squad, including outstanding Roar player Matt McKay and Adelaide's keeper Eugene Galekovic. Former Socceroo Stan Lazaridis chats to us about the match and the next generation of Socceroos.

Over to Europe and England where Andrew McTernan fills us with the stats we may not know about Spain, Germany, Italy, Champions and Europa Leagues. Why are Spain and Italy's attendance figures well below 60% of stadium capacity, while England and Germany are well over 80%?

Join Penny and Don for a 2 hour programme from 9-11am this Saturday on 107.9fm. Text us anytime on 0408 921 832 or ring the station during the show on 9494 2100.
